PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Seventy years after the destruction of the Temple, the Jewish people ask Zechariah if they should still mourn in the fifth month, the month in which the Temple was destroyed. Zechariah cuts to the chase by asking them a question: "Why are you fasting? Are you fasting for yourself, or are you honoring God?" (Zechariah 7:1-7).

What if Zechariah were to ask a similar question of us: Why do you go to worship? Do you go to worship for yourself or out of habit? Or do you go to honor God?

Zechariah points out that people sometimes do the right things for the wrong reasons. He challenged the people of his day to be intentional in their fasting. He challenges us to be intentional in our worship. We should recognize that the purpose of worship is to honor God.

Worship extends beyond Sunday morning services. In our work, home life, and prayer life, we can worship God by honoring Him with our actions and devotion. Sunday morning worship is meant to be an expression of our everyday faith, not just an attempt to look good before God once a week.

In "Babette's Feast" by Isak Dinesen, Babette is described as a woman who is now turning a dinner ... into a kind of love affair... in which one no longer distinguishes between bodily and spiritual appetite!" We, too, are called to turn our lives into love affairs. Our lives should be love affairs for God in which we attempt to honor God in all settings, the altar table and the dinner table. We cannot invite God into our lives in church and then refuse to take God home with us. In everything we do, we must seek to honor God.

See you in church,

Wayne

WHO DO YOU APPRECIATE?

October is staff and pastor appreciation month. This is a good time to tell people how much you appreciate what they do for the church. Whether they have a paid position or are a volunteer, send them a card or a note of thanks or tell them in person your words of appreciation. Drop off your cards at the church office and the secretary will see that they are delivered. Thank you for being a faithful person of God at John Stewart.

A SENIOR'S MOMENT

There is a story of a rather rough, uncultured man who fell in love with a beautiful vase in a shop window. He bought the vase and put it on a shelf in his room. But it became a kind of judgment on its surroundings. He had to make certain changes in the room to make it worthy of the vase. The curtains looked dingy beside it so they were replaced. The old chair with the stuffing coming out of the seat would not do, so it had to go. The wallpaper and the paint needed renewing. Gradually, the whole room was replaced. Even he, himself, began to spruce up and take better care of himself.

It is just in this way that Christ works in the hearts and lives of an individual. We begin with Christ and, as we keep our eyes on him, we realize how shabby we appear in contrast. Our old, careless habits seem out of place: coarse language, degrading amusements, selfishness, and thoughtlessness, all must be replaced by those things that conform to the likeness of the Son of God. So we set about to set our spiritual house in order. One of the brightest rays of hope for the human family is that goodness is just as contagious as evil.

What a change there would be in our world if we would keep our eyes fixed on Christ and strive to be like Him! "In all your ways, acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths:." (Prov. 3:6)

JUST FOR FUN

A truck driver was sitting at a truck stop counter quietly eating his breakfast when three rough-looking motorcyclists came in. They were bearded, dirty, wearing leather jackets and helmets with weird decals on them. The truck driver looked at them for a moment, and then continued eating his breakfast. The bikers apparently took offense at the way he looked at them.

They sauntered over to the trucker. One knocked over his coffee, another poured syrup on his eggs. The third one dumped salt and pepper on his head. The trucker took his abuse without saying a word, left a tip, and went over to the cashier, paid his bill and walked out the door to the parking lot.

"He sure wasn't much of a man", one of the bikers said to the waitress as they seated themselves in the window booth. "He didn't even put up a fight".

"He's not much of a driver, either," said the waitress as she looked out the window. "He just backed his truck over three motorcycles."

LETTER FROM THE BISHOP ABOUT SOUTH EAST OHIO TORNADO RELIEF

Dear Friends in Christ:

On September 16, 2010, devastating tornados and gale-force winds ripped through Southeast Ohio along a path from Nelsonville through Athens and nearly reaching the Ohio River Valley. Many people in our communities and churches have experienced damage or destruction of private property. Many more have experienced the fear and anxiety of having their lives and livelihoods literally uprooted.

I am grateful to report that the United Methodist Church is and will continue to respond to the needs of affected communities and families. One of the greatest gifts of the United Methodist Church is our connectional identity. We don't have to do things on our own. While local congregations (The Plains UMC is particularly noteworthy) are providing care to those affected by the tornados, the Foothills District Superintendent, Rev. Dennis Mohler, has formed a response team to support the work of the local communities and congregations. The response team is composed of Roger Thatcher, District Response Team Coordinator, Rev. Joel Harbarger, pastor of The Plains UMC, Rev. Bob Davis, Director of Jackson Area Ministries, Rev. Brent Watson, Assistant to the District Superintendent, and Rev. Dennis Mohler. This district team is working closely with the West Ohio Conference Disaster Response Team, chaired by Jim Rodgers and staffed by Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner. Together, plans are being made to guide our long term response to include not only restoration of buildings, but emotional and spiritual care to the communities and congregations. West Ohio has already received an emergency grant of $10,000 from UMCOR to assist in our response. UMCOR consultants are also working with us to strengthen our capacity to respond to the needs of our neighbors.

Many individuals and congregations have inquired about how they can best assist in the relief and recovery work in the Foothills District. I invite the members and congregations of West Ohio to support the efforts already underway to be the presence of Christ's healing love in Athens, Meigs and Perry counties. I encourage you to pray for the individuals and communities affected, those providing leadership to our response and those providing ongoing care. I also urge you to give financially. Those who are uninsured or underinsured desperately need our assistance. Athens and Meigs counties are the two most impoverished counties in Ohio with nearly 30% of the families living below the poverty line. Sixty percent (60%) of the homes destroyed or damaged on September 16 were uninsured.

Please send your donations to the Council on Development. 100% of the money donated for this relief will go to relief efforts. Checks may be designated as "SE Ohio Tornado Response." All checks should be mailed to:

Council on Development
West Ohio Conference
32 Wesley Boulevard
Worthington, Ohio 43085

I continue to be grateful for the leadership provided by Rev. Dennis Mohler and the District and Conference Disaster Response Teams.

Thank you for your extravagant gifts of prayer, compassion and treasure.
In Christ, the model of extravagant and sacrificial love,

Bruce R. Ough
